Notes for HUGH ALEXANDER:

Record of Deeds, Bedford, Pennsylvania (G 205, Feb. 14, 1805) mentions Hugh Alexander as a resident of Scott County, Kentucky; and two deeds (H 328, Sept. 16, 1811, and I J 34, Sept. 24, 1813) name him as of the State of 'Caintucky'.

Record of Deeds, Georgetown, Scott County, Kentucky, has an entry of April 3, 1835, K 192, signed by the administrator of Hugh's estate, for sale of a tract on "the waters of Lane's Run". Several entries refer to the preemption of a tract in Scott County by William Alexander, on ein the year '179-'. William Hannum felt this suggests Hugh's occupancy of land in Scott County, Kentucky, was on land once owned by his father.

In his research in the late 1930's, William Hamilton Hannum cited a letter signed by "your loving Sister Isabel Alexander, from Cove Bedford 12th April 1804 to Mary A., but addressed on the outside to Mr. Hugh Alexa ... Scott C ... ty favoured by Mr. Shannon". William Hannum indicated that this letter seems intended for Mary to forward to Hugh.

Hannum further states that the use of the names Mary and Polly for sisters is not explained. Polly, he notes, is usually a pet-name for Mary, but appears in this case to be representatives of some other name. The cited letter was found in the papers of Isabel's niece, Jane (Hamilton) Lowe.
